We're told that the most miraculous thing about computers is their ability to store and feed back millions of bits of information. But in MAD's opinion, that's not the most miraculous thing about computers. The real miracle is that not one of the millions of facts they have stored away is the correct spelling of our name, or our accurate address, or a single smidgen of data about us that is completely right! As each of us wastes hours and hours trying to correct the garble spewed out by some crazed silicon chip, we are bound to wonder how that much stupidity can be produced with such unflinching regularity. Thus, we ask...

...why do they assume you want to receive 800 identical copies of the same mail order catalogue?

...why do they spread the word that you're responsible for all of the 1983 and 1984 parking tickets issued to a car that you sold in 1981?

...why can't they report your correct wages to the I.R.S., especially when it's a known fact that the I.R.S. will always believe a computer and assume the taxpayer is lying?

...why can't they find someone to write a computer instruction manual who knows how to put together a simple sentence?

...why does the increasing amount of information they spew out to TV weathermen only make the forecasts more inaccurate?

...how come they're always telling you that you're making an error, but they can never tell you what it is?

...why do they invariably select the phone numbers of the elderly, the unmarried and the childless to receive their annoying calls about diaper service?

...how do they figure that your bank balance could have dropped from $1,854 to $18.54 during a month you didn't make any withdrawals?

...what is their logic in letting 14,000 murders go unsolved while they devote full time to nailing you on some old traffic warrant?

...why do they blithely pass along a ridiculous meter reading that makes your monthly electric bill higher than the one for Yankee Stadium?

...why do they insist that "JOHNSMITH" is all one word, and must be alphabetized under "J" until its poor owner gets around to acquiring a first name?

...why do companies that install them immediately have to hire lots of extra employees just to correct computer errors?

Robots are slowly taking over the jobs that humans used to do—from building cars to hosting Entertainment Tonight (unless we're wrong about Vanessa Lachey). And it's only a matter of time before these freakin' androids are working in our homes too! And then what happens? Uh...Actually, we're not sure. Welcome to a reality unlike anything you've experienced! Here in 2045, we distract ourselves from a depressed economy by staring at screens made by abusive corporations and retreating into fantasies that mean more to us than our own empty lives... okay, maybe it's not totally unlike anything you've experienced.

It's called the Hiatus. It's worth a trillion dollars and was created by two men, James Hideaway and Begdan Borrowed. They showed us we can go somewhere without going anywhere. People join the Hiatus for all the things they can do, but stay for all the things they can be! And whoever wrote this craptacular script proved you can describe everything while saying nothing!

My real name is Weird Whatsit, but what matters is my online avatar, Farcall! He represents the limits of my imagination. He also makes it possible to talk to girls!

So you could have made your avatar look like Chris Hemsworth, but you went with the post-apocalyptic Ellen DeGeneres? Way to go.

Hello, I'm James Hideaway, and if you're watching this, I'm dead. And if you keep watching this, you'll soon wish you were dead! I left this message to announce a contest, which I've dubbed "The Contest." Okay, maybe it's not an inspired name, but...I'm dead!

Before I died, I created an Easter egg. The first person to find it will inherit my stock in this game, a half-trillion dollars, and control of the Hiatus. In the form of my avatar Anowreck, I created three keys with three hidden tests.

Oh look, a reclusive oddball genius sets up an ill-defined game where a worthy player can inherit control of his strange business empire if he can figure out his logs and survive the dangerous challenges! Tell me more!

Let's agree this guy's me in this film of no imagination! They just hacked my whole art. What a blatant imi-tation!

Goners, this is rush hour in New York City! The first player to drive from 6th Ave. to 8th Ave. in less than 45 minutes will be the winner! No one has ever done it!

Man, I love cameo spotting! I just saw Hornbuckle, a non-playable Mortal Kombat character! And NO FREAKIN' WAY, it's See-Thru, a robotic thief who appeared in just one episode of ThunderCats! And next to him...uh...who the heck is that?

My friend is Itch, and my friend Farcall is the ultimate video game character! He's got the skills of Contra, and the personality of a Tetris brick!

Here are my other two online friends, Mosquito and Shmoo. Or maybe it's the other way around. Either way, you'll spend their roughly 6 minutes of time on screen not wondering!

Yo!

Okay, that's enough out of you guys. I bet you all have great backstories in the novel version of this that I'm not going to read.

Most people think that great inventors know exactly what they are inventing when they are inventing something. But that just isn't so. Take MAD for instance. We started out to publish a serious intellectual-type magazine, and now look at it! That's what happened with most so-called great inventions we take so much for granted. Actually, they were only...

ACCIDENTAL INVENTIONS

WRITER PAUL KRASSNER

ARTIST JOE ORLANDO

Back in the days of primitive man, one wise joker decided to invent something entirely new... a door to his cave...

One clever fellow tried to invent a faster telegraph key.

This inventor built the first portable air-conditioner...

Trouble was, the cave entrance was round, and his "door" kept slipping away from him and rolling down the hill...

He used too tight a spring, and got a different message.

and discovered that he'd put the fan motor in backwards.

Two brothers had a revolutionary idea for a blanket-dryer.

This genius decided he'd build the first television set...

A fellow worked for years on an electric envelope sealer.

One man thought he'd invent a machine that would relax tense muscles and help increase the circulation of blood.

When they tried it, the blankets were left high, not dry.

Only in the process, he accidentally got his rays crossed.

The first time he tested it out, another idea popped up.

Unfortunately, when he tried it out, he discovered he was all wet. And being all wet, he got the shock of his life.

GO FORWARD! GO FORWARD INTO SPACE, FORWARD INTO TIME! GO FORWARD... 1952! 1962! 1982! GO! GO TO 1,000,000 A.D.! THAT'S FAR ENOUGH! BACK UP A LITTLE! LOOK! THE EARTH! A MASS OF STEELY CITIES AND MEN! MEN? NO! NOT REALLY MEN! MORE LIKE ...

FROM WHAT I READ IN OUR HISTORY BOOKS, THE FIRST PRIMITIVE CAVE MAN WAS MUCH LIKE A WALKING APE!

HIS LIFE WAS VERY UNCOMPLICATED! HE NEVER RODE ANYWHERE, AS WE DO TODAY! HE HAD TO WALK... POOR CREATURE... ON HIS FEET!

I CAN'T UNDERSTAND WHY, BUT THE WRETCHED THING NEVER HAD VITAMIN PILLS, OR... OR DEHYDRATED MEALS! JUST RAW FRUITS, BERRIES, AND SOMETIMES, MEAT!

HIS SOCIAL LIFE WAS EQUALLY SIMPLE! AS I UNDERSTAND IT, IF HE SAW A FEMALE HE MIGHT DESIRE FOR A MATE, THERE WAS NO TAKING HER OUT TO A MOVIE OR SOME-SUCH!

HE SIMPLY WOULD BASH THE FEMALE ON THE HEAD WITH HIS FIST, OR SOME CONVENIENT BLUNT INSTRUMENT, AND THAT WOULD BE THAT! THERE WOULDN'T BE ANYTHING ELSE TO IT!

HE WOULD THEN DRAG THE FEMALE OFF TO HIS CAVE, AND THERE SHE WOULD REMAIN AS HIS WIFE! SIMPLE! EFFECTIVE! AMERICAN!... BUT EVEN THEN, THE SICKNESS WAS SETTING IN!

THAT BLUNT INSTRUMENT.. THAT TOOL!... THAT WAS MAN'S MISTAKE! FOR THAT TOOL, WAS THE FIRST IN A HISTORY OF TOOLS THAT MAN WOULD FASHION TO DO HIS WORK FOR HIM!

AND THE HEART OF OUR WHOLE CIVILIZATION IS THAT MASTER MONSTER MACHINE THAT HOLDS THE COMPLEX MECHANISM THAT CONTROLS OUR WHOLE EXISTENCE! THE MACHINE WITHOUT WHICH WE WOULD BE LOST! DO YOU KNOW WHAT THAT MEANS?

WE HAVE EVEN DEVELOPED A MACHINE TO TAKE CARE OF THE MACHINE... TO FEED IT, TO REPAIR IT!

AND WITHOUT THE MACHINE, WE ARE COMPLETELY HELPLESS! SEE OVER THERE! HE ONLY HAS TO THINK OF AN ICE CREAM SODA! THE MACHINE GIVE IT TO HIM!

LOOK! LOOK OVER THERE! THAT FELLOW WANTS HIS BACK SCRATCHED! HE SENDS A THOUGHT COMMAND INTO THE MACHINE... IT SCRATCHES HIS BACK!

OVER THERE! THAT ONE WANTS ONE OF THOSE DISPOSABLE PREFABRICATED ROBOT WOMEN... ANCIENT 1952 HOLLYWOOD STYLE! HE PUTS A COIN INTO THE MACHINE AND GETS A ROBOT WOMAN! HAVE YOU NOTICED HOW LESS AND LESS MEN ARE GETTING MARRIED, AND MORE AND MORE OF THESE ROBOT WOMEN ARE BEING SOLD?

OUR CIVILIZATION IS GOING TO POT! WE LIE AROUND FROM DAY TO DAY SEEKING PLEASURE! DOING NOTHING! GETTING MORE AND MORE HELPLESS WITH EACH PASSING MOMENT!

SO... ALFRED! WHAT ARE YOU TRYING TO PROVE?

PROVE? PROVE? MELVIN! WHAT... WHAT IF THE MACHINE THAT REPAIRS THE MACHINE... BREAKS?

YES, DEAR READER! THE MACHINE DID BREAK!

FIVE UPSIDES TO THE ROBOT APOCALYPSE

WRITER JEFF KRUSE ARTIST BOB STAAKE

- 1 You can smugly tell Fundamentalist Christians, "Well, the Book of Revelations never mentioned robots, did it?"
- 2 It'll take our minds off of the zombie apocalypse that'll be happening at the same time.
- 3 If mankind somehow survives, having defeated the robots, we'll have plenty of spare parts to start building robots again.
- 4 Since they'll almost certainly dismantle our current political system, robocall, ironically, will become obsolete.
- 5 The advent of new, never-before-dreamed-of porn genres.

The whole auto industry is in the pocket of "Big Pavement," man!

Because  $P=(\sigma)\zeta(u)-Y\pi \geq \cos(n)\sqrt{[f]}$ ! Duh!

Most people would rather just stay home than have a TSA agent cavity-search them every time they went to go pick up the dry cleaning.

Overly complicated controls make it almost impossible to text while flying.

Market research deemed them a lost cause after Michael Bay's Chitty Chitty Bang Bang reboot tanked at the box office.
